

Dreams

Don't allow the howling wind to capture your dreams and carelessly throw them away

Because without dreams you're dead inside

A dream is a book of wonders and imagination

Without it, you are just a leafless tree.

Don't litter on my dreams

They are just as unique as yours

Dreams can change your life

As dreams are part of me.

Don't poison my dreams

Don't demolish my dreams or implode them

Because without dreams

You are a flower in a lost, unforgiving, empty desert decaying and dying.

Dreams can come and dreams go

However, sometimes it feels like a snake in your mind poisoning you it with their unforgiving bite decaying your dream

As your dream bleeds crying for help, it gradually fades.

Abandoned... a homeless, shattered, dream.
